Please find out if councilmen plan to gag citizens' speech

I would like someone on your staff to investigate a rumor I have been hearing.

I have been told that two Romulus councilmen are upset about citizens speaking during the agenda-audience part of the meeting.

I understand that the proper forms were made out to speak to the agenda. It sounds as if the councilmen do not wish to hear from the citizens.

I also understand the council makes its own rules as to allowing citizens to speak and these two councilmen are making plans to change the rules.

If this is true, it sounds like censorship to me. I will watching the Romulus Roman to see if there is any truth in this case.

Police are extremely busy in the Middlebelt and Annapolis area

Hello, I'm responding to a caller who was complaining that drivers are given a green light to run red lights at Farmington Road and asked, "Where are the Westland police?"

Chief Price also needs to go to the corner of Middlebelt and Annapolis, where Westland joins Inkster. That's where he will find the Westland police. They are writing tickets and harassing drivers in the area, mostly in the city of Inkster.

I challenge Chief Price, the Michigan Community Newspapers, and other interested parties to monitor that area any day, any evening, and any night until three to four in the morning. Westland police are actually writing tickets while sitting in the city of Inkster.

I did an unofficial survey. While the north and western areas of Westland escape the law, Westland police are extremely busy in the Middlebelt and Annapolis area. [Westland police write plenty of tickets on the north and west sides — Ed.]

Baywatch star spends night in Romulus lock-up

Cocaine, syringes allegedly found in wrecked car

By ANN PARKER
MCN Special Writer

Jasmine Bleeth, who played a lifeguard on 'Baywatch,' was arrested last Wednesday night (September 12) on eastbound I-94, east of Middlebelt, after police found cocaine and syringes in the car she crashed into the highway median.

Romulus police's field test on the substance on one of the needles identified it as being cocaine.

Police use a test kit that contains certain chemicals that when mixed with a drug can determine the identity of a drug by means of a color chart.

Bleeth had been in Birmingham visiting her boyfriend's parents when she became stranded, last Tuesday, as a result of the shutdown of Detroit-Wayne County Metropolitan Airport, stemming from the hijacking of the four American planes. Bleeth's was booked on a flight back to Los Angeles.

Bleeth was released Thursday, after spending 12 hours in jail.

Police took Bleeth's blood sample at Annapolis Hospital, the sample was then taken to the Michigan State Police lab, in Northville, for testing of cocaine. The results of those blood tests will determine if Bleeth will be charged with a misdemeanor or a felony, or if she will be charged with any crime, at all.

If Bleeth's blood tested positive for cocaine, a warrant will be issued by the Wayne County Prosecutor and she will have to return to Michigan and appear for her arraignment.

If charged with a misdemeanor (operating under the influence of drugs) Bleeth can face 90-days in jail. If charged with a felony (possession of narcotics) Bleeth will face one to seven years in jail.

Romulus, Taylor appeal judge's EDS decision

By ANN PARKER
MCN Special Writer

On August 24, Judge Hathaway ruled that the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) was justified in granting a permit to Environmental Disposal Systems (EDS) to build a deep-injection well, more commonly referred to as a hazardous waste treatment facility, on Citrin Drive, in Romulus - dismissing the city of Romulus and the city of Taylor's appeal.

According to David Cox, Mayor William Oakley's assistant, Judge Hathaway's decision "takes away power of the citizens to make decisions that affect them."

With the judge's decision in hand, the only recourse the cities had was to file an appeal of the ruling within 21 days or file for an extension within 21 days of the judges ruling.

Fred Zorn, the city of Taylor's Economic Development Director, confirmed that the city of Romulus, along with the city of Taylor, had requested that their joint council, Marilyn Peters, of Dykema Gossett, file an appeal of Judge Amy P. Hathaway's decision in the Michigan Court of Appeals.

Cox asserts that even though the city of Romulus and the city of Taylor have filed an appeal, "the decision as to whether or not the appeal will be heard is up to the court. Obviously, the city of Romulus continues to feel as though we have a sound legal basis for our challenge and the courts decision does not change that."

Romulus police, joined by Special Agents of the FBI, (above photo) hunt for clues during the May 10 robbery of a Brinks armored car in Romulus. FBI said this week that they have arrested two men and charged them with the robbery.

FBI arrests 2 suspects for armored car heist

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The FBI has taken into custody two suspects who are accused of the May 10, 2001, armed robbery of a Brinks armored car which had made a pick up from an auto parts store in the City of Romulus.

The suspects have been identified as Daniel Story, 18, of Inkster, and Donnell Mitchell, 21, of Detroit.

Story and Mitchell will be charged with armed robbery and possession of a weapon during the commission of a felony.

Story was arrested by a team of law enforcement officers, made up of Special Agents of the FBI, and Inkster, and Romulus police, at a house in the City of Inkster on July 2.

According to Inkster police, Story was taken into custody in an apartment building on Allen Street.

When officers entered the building, the suspect was hiding and later police found a weapon which was later traced to a out-state homicide. Officers took the subject into custody. No one was injured.

Inkster Police Chief Terry Colwell commended the officers involved in the investigation and subsequent arrest.

Mitchell was taken into custody by Inkster police in a house on Moore Court, in the Denby Public Housing area. He did not resist, according to police.

The two men are accused of pulling off a daring, early morning robbery at the Auto Zone, an auto parts store, at 35353 Van Born Road. The two gunmen managed to escape with approximately $10,000.

A massive manhunt followed in the wake of the robbery. The Michigan Community Newspapers unwittingly played a key role in identifying one of the subjects.

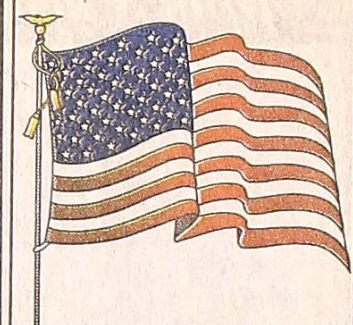

Donnell Mitchell, an outstanding basketball player, was feaured as a member of a local church team that had recently won a tournament in Saginaw. The feature, with photo, appeared in the sports section of the local newspapers. MCN reporters cooperated with the FBI and the other police agencies.

"That photo gave us a very good description of who we were looking for," said a law enforcement officer who asked not to be identified.

The FBI said it was involved in the investigation because the Brinks armored car travels across state boundaries and is involved in inter-state commerce.

Police said that they have not recovered the $10,000 reported stolen in the heist.

The Michigan Community Newspapers, in conjunction with local businesses, are doing their part to help the families of the victims of last week's tragic events by raising money to send to the American Red Cross.

The following local businesses made it possible through their donations for MCN to publish the 26" X 21" American flag to show support of our government's efforts to defend this country: BP, Dillon's, Red Holman, TenPenny's, Master Photo, Jack Demmer, Tobacco Road, Preferred Realtors, L & L Recycling, Metro West, Dr. James Gillig, Mayor William Oakley, Briarwood Ford, ReMax, Guardian Alarm, Auto Finance, Yazaki, Howard's Towing, Dandy Oil, Express Tool, Storroom, N.A. NEWS FROM THE CITY OF INKSTER

Motel owners protest city's new inspection fees

They say new series of fees will drive them out of business

A handful of Inkster motel owners and operators, joined by Tony Love, the Executive Director of Inkster Housing, Wednesday night protested to mayor and city council new inspection fee on rental apartment units.

The group urged the local lawmakers to rescind the ordinance because, the new fees, plus the old ones the city already charges, will drive them out of business.

A recently-enacted ordinance imposes a second layer of fees upon an already exorbitant fee structure, the motel owners told Mayor Hilliard Hampton, Jr. and five members of city council.

Councilwoman Naomi James and councilman Marcus Hendricks didn't attend the council's study session.

The new fee structure calls for motel owners to pay additional inspection fees of $150 per building, plus $20 for the first room, then an additional $50 for every other room in the complex.

"I have 16 units which means I have to come up with approximately $1,400 every other year for these inspections," said Divyesh Patel, who has owned and operated the Evergreen Motel, on Michigan Avenue, for the past 10 years.

"We already have inspections by code enforcement officers, the fire and the electrical departments, which are costly, add these additional costs to what we have been paying annually, and they become exorbitant," said Patel.

"What this city apparently wants to do is to run us out of business. And the city would lose if they do that because we do pay a lot of taxes," Patel said.

Mayor Hampton informed the motel owners that the city had held public hearings on what was then the proposed ordinance, and "it was unfortunate you didn't attend the meetings and give us your input at that time."

The mayor also pointed out the council enacted the ordinance because its goal was to stop people from operating flop houses.

"Our goal was not to hurt our local businesses but to clean up the image of our city," the mayor added.

Love told mayor and council if the ordinance is implemented public housing would have to "come up with $20,000 for Lemoyne Gardens alone" and the executive director estimated that to cover the costs for Demby, Thompson Towers and Parkway, "we would need more than $100,000 that housing doesn't have in its budget."

"We just don't have that kind of money," said Love.

Love also reminded the lawmakers that HUD conducts annual inspections.

"This (new fees) would drain us financially and we view it as an additional burden placed upon public housing. We are presently spending millions of dollars to improve the city," Love said.

Councilman Ernest Hendricks asked the executive director whether the Department of Housing of Urban Development would not provide the funding to cover the costs for the inspections.

In response, Love said that HUD provides funding "but there are no reserves. These new fees will have a tremendous financial impact on us."

The executive director also said that HUD has changed its funding policies, that in the past monies would be made available per housing unit, the revised policy stipulates that funding is to be allocated on the basis of occupancy.

"Because we don't have full occupancy, we are not getting full subsidies," said Love.

The mayor requested that Love compile a report on what the new rates would cost and do to public housing's budget.

"As I have just now requested from the motel owners, would you, too, give us something in writing so council can review it," the mayor said.

Goodfellows to serve pancake breakfast

It may not be Christmas, but there is a group of volunteers who are thinking about Old Saint Nick and assuring each and every child has a Merry Christmas.

The group is the Inkster Goodfellows who will be serving pancakes to help raise funds for kids.

Booker T. Dozier, longtime president of the Inkster Goodfellows, says that the need to help this year is even greater than in the past because of the sudden and unexpected turn in the economy.

The annual Pancake Breakfast will be served from 7 a.m. until noon on Sept. 22, at the Booker T. Dozier Recreation Complex, 2025 Middlebelt Road, about a quarter-mile north of Michigan Ave.

Donations are $6, and, all proceeds go to make sure that: "No Child is Without a Christmas."

Convicted child abuser sentenced Hayes receives 5 to 15 years

A 29-year-old Wayne man, who beat his stepchild into a coma earlier this year, was sentenced last week to 5 to 15 years behind bars by a Wayne County Circuit Court judge.

Jason Hayes was convicted of child abuse, first degree.

The jury heard testimony that the defendant beat the victim because she apparently didn't want to tie her shoes, "and he was going to teach her a lesson."

The child's mother was not at home during the vicious beating.

The 5-year-old girl remains in the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor where she has reportedly come out of the coma and is slowly recovering from head injuries.

"The child will need extensive therapy in the months to come, but we believe that she will make it," according to a police official. "However, she still has a long way to go."

The incident occurred at the Greyberry Apartments, on Hannan Road, north of Michigan Avenue.

Hayes appeared before Circuit Court Judge Maggie Drake on Sept. 13 for sentencing.

The convicted child-beater said little when the judge announced her decision to incarcerate him for up to 15 years.

None of the victim's family members would comment on the judge's decision after the trial.

Law enforcement gets $38,254 grant

Wayne Police Chief Mike Sumeracki said on Tuesday that the department will use the latest round of Bureau of Justice grants for a unique Crime Mapping Program.

The local police department was awarded $38,254. The city must come up with $4,250 in matching funds.

Sumeracki informed mayor and council that the grant money is earmarked for a Crime Mapping Program which will assist in 9-1-1 wireless compliance.

Part of the funds also will be utilized for police surveillance equipment, a moving firearms target system, and a thermal printer, according to the police chief.

"Before money can be drawn," Sumeracki told council, "two conditions must be met."

The conditions include the convening of a Citizens' Advisory Board to review the use of the funds, and also a public hearing must be held to receive citizens' input regarding the proposed use of the grant.

Sumeracki said that the Advisory Board is scheduled to meet on Sept. 26 at the Wayne Police Department.

Mayor and council approved a public hearing to be held on Oct. 2 before the regularly-scheduled meeting of council to consider the recommendations of the Advisory Board.

Board certifies primary election results

In an election that produced a couple of surprises, the Board of Canvassers met on Thursday to certify the election results of the Wayne primary election.

The election was held on Tues., Sept. 11.

The top six candidates who received the most votes will advance to the general election which will be conducted on Nov. 6. Voters will elect three council members and also, for the first time in the history of the city, will directly elect their mayor.

In the past, the mayor was elected by a vote of council.

On Sept. 12, the Board certified the Tuesday, Sept. 11 primary with the following results: Donna M. McEachern (890), Thomas H. Kelly (797), Pam Dobrowski (733), Donald L. Hartford (631), Kenneth A. Warfield (542), Albert M. Damitio (505), Shirley A. Powser (196), Roger D. Koromos (189) and Mark T. Diehl (160).

McEachern, Kelly, Dobrowski, Hartford, Warfield, and Damitio will advance to the general election.

Although there appeared to be a lot of interest displayed during the campaign, about 14 percent of the registered voters (12,000) actually took time to vote. Some attributed the low turnout to the terrorists' attack on the World Trade Center, which also occurred on Sept. 11.

There are two candidates who are seeking to become the first mayor directly elected by the people: Robert J. Dickerson, who is completing his first term as mayor, and Councilman Al Haidous.

Lt. Keith Thomas earns state award

A veteran Wayne law enforcement officer was named the recipient of a state award.

Lt. Keith Thomas was recognized for "Outstanding Performance by an Individual Officer in the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning's 'Operation Nightcap' Alcohol Enforcement Program."

The program helps remove intoxicated drivers from the highways during holidays.

"I am proud," Wayne Police Chief Mike Sumeracki told mayor and council Tuesday night, "to announce that Lt. Keith Thomas was selected as this year's winner."

Lt. Thomas will be recognized at a luncheon in Lansing today (Sept. 20) for his untiring commitment and dedication to the importance of traffic safety education and enforcement.

Mayor Robert Dickerson and council members congratulated the long-time law enforcement officer for his achievement.

Pancake benefit to aid New York's fallen firefighters

The scheduled Oct. 6 Wayne Firefighters' and Police Officers Pancake Breakfast will have a special and solemn meaning this year - the proceeds will be given to the families of firefighters and police officers who lost their lives when the World Trade Center crumbled on Tuesday, Sept. 11.

Because of the anticipated huge turnout, the breakfast also will be held at the UAW Local 900 hall, located at 38200 Michigan Ave. Tickets are $4 for adults, $3 for children 10 and under, instead of at the fire station, fire officials said.

The world is mourning the more than 5,000 victims of the terrorists' attacks, and hundreds of New York firefighters and police officers who rushed to the scene of the disaster when two passenger jets, hijacked by terrorists crashed into the World Trade Center.

Firefighters and police officers were on the front lines in a brave attempt to rescue the lives of those who were caught in the debris when the towers collapsed.

"This will be the fourth consecutive year the (Wayne) firefighters have raised money through a pancake breakfast," said Fire Chief Rob Dahlman, "and this year all monies raised will benefit the New York fallen firefighters and police officers."

The Oct. 6 breakfast also includes several other displays: There will be appearances of Sparky the Fire Dog, demonstrations of the thermal imaging camera, t-shirt sales, and much more, according to fire officials.

Advanced tickets may be purchased at the Fire and Police stations.

There will also be tickets available at the door on the day of the breakfast.

Tragedy brings people and nation together

Prayers sought for Canton missing person

One positive result of last Tuesday's strategy is that the people of this very diverse nation have come together in a wave of patriotism not seen in America since the bombing of Pearl Harbor. And many of those people are offering whatever they can as a show of support for the families of the victims in the World Trade Center, Pentagon and airplane hijacking tragedies.

One example locally is John Bota. Bota owns JB's Place and after watching the horrific footage on television day after day he decided he would use his place of business to raise money for the Red Cross.

Last weekend, with the help of employees, friends and several students from Belleville High School, JB's Place raised over $1,000 for the Red Cross and collected literally tons of food and supplies that were immediately shipped to New York City.

Simultaneously this newspaper contacted several businesses to raise money for the Red Cross and promote patriotism by producing a flag that readers could display in their windows or on their doors.

The result can be found in our B section this week. Nearly 40 businesses contributed money for the promotion. All of the proceeds, thousands of dollars, will go directly to the Red Cross. MCN employees said this was by far the easiest promotion they have ever sold — our hometown businesses once again came to the aid of those in need.

One family that could use a prayer at this point, is the family of Merideth Whalen. Whalen, a 1996 graduate of Plymouth Salem High School, is amonth the Alger Management employees missing in the World Trade Center rubble.

Whalen, 23, daughter of Henry Whalen, a trustee on the Canton Township Board for many years, is a brilliant student. She graduated from Salem with honors and then went on to the University of Michigan, where she also received "honors."

I am told she could have gone to any school and had her pick of most any job — she is that smart. She chose the glamour of New York, and the 93rd floor of the World Trade Center. Let's all pray that Whalen is still alive and will be pulled from the rubble in the next couple of days.

While many of us were mourning or conceiving ways to raise money for the tragedy, actress Jasmine Bleeth was cruising our local highways at a high rate of speed, eventually crashing her rented car.

Bleeth, caught in Romulus when all airplanes were grounded, spent a night in the Romulus jail. Found in her rental car were syringes and cocaine.

The star of "Baywatch" could have killed others with her erratic driver. As if we haven't suffered enough, now Americans must watch out for spoiled, pampered movie stars that apparently would rather "shoot up" than help with the tragedy.

I'm sure Bleeth is no stranger to New York City. Neither am I. I used to visit and do business in Manhattan several times a year. The World Trade Center loomed high over us all, like a protective mother, as we went about our daily business.

I can't imagine being without the twin towers. I know some have mentioned a memorial park in its place, but if it were my decision, I would rebuild those towers making them bigger and gaudier than ever.

We cannot allow Osama bin Laden, Saddam Hussein or any other enemy think they have bested us by destroying one of the nation's most famous landmarks. America is the land of opportunity and ingenuity. We can rebuild the Trade Center and show the world that America is mightier than ever.

Mike's musings

War may worsen local economy

The first casualty of the War Against Terrorism may be the local economy. Already weak because of the downturn — some would say recession — the good times are temporarily gone for auto and construction workers.

New homes sales have been down all year, even in Canton. Real estate prices have dropped. Fall clothes have been on sale since August. Computer prices are at an all-time low and still falling. The dollar has been falling on currency markets.

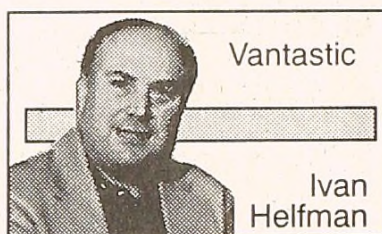

On Monday morning, as I write, stock prices tanked, as they did when the market opened after Pearl Harbor. (Of course, the Pearl Harbor market rebounded a week later, as I hope this one will. It should as the Federal Reserve and Wall Street's powerful investment banks pour billions of dollars to prop it up.)

On the evening of Sept. 11, gas lines returned as many area station owners jacked up prices until Attorney General Jennifer Granholm put a stop to the price gouging.

While citizens and network TV commentators have rallied around the president's declaration of war against worldwide terrorism in retribution for last week's mass murder of 5,000 innocent people, I believe that the reaction was what the terrorists hoped for.

In my view, the terrorists are fighting a psychological and religious war, not a military one, with the goal of getting America out of several Muslim countries, especially the oil-producing ones.

The way to force the issue was to commit a massacre so barbaric that America would have to take strong steps to defend itself against more terrorist acts. Consequently, America is taking the many necessary steps: increasing security at home and, with the help of allies, waging unlimited war abroad.

Vantastic

Though the US has no other choice but to defend itself, the unlimited war abroad plays into the hands of the extremist Muslim terrorists by forcing the government of oil-producing countries to take sides in the war.

The problem comes in oil-producing countries, such as Saudi Arabia, where there is a split between the governments' desire to engage in peaceful trade with the US, and the country's Muslim populations, which tend to support Osama bin Laden's crusade, aided and abetted by many countries, to expel American troops and Western influence from the Middle East.

Given the reaction of the American government and people, it's possible that bin Laden and his followers have met their match.

But it's also possible that capture of the terrorist leadership and suspected abettors, such as Saddam Hussein, will only create thousands of new suicide terrorists to topple Middle East governments friendly to America.

It's that prospect that has rattled the stock markets. Unlike the network anchormen and commentators who seem to only be reporting patriotic news (called propaganda when Chinese television does it), investors know an economic war when they see it.

While George Bush declared war last week, many extremist Muslims have been at war for over a decade. Though most of the terrorism has been directed at Israel, our ally, a few of our planes have been shot down, US Marines have been killed in Lebanon and Saudi Arabia, and the World Trade Center has been bombed. Measured American reprisals have been as ineffective as massive Israeli ones. The only long-term result has been to greatly increase the ranks of terrorists willing to die for Allah and to give the terrorists time to plan and infiltrate our porous borders.

Thanks to our lax immigration policies, created in part by former Michigan senator Spencer Abraham, many believe that the country harboring the most Muslim terrorists is the United States. (Immigration restrictions and noninterventionist foreign policies had gone a long way to prevent smaller terrorist bombings in the 1920s and 1950s, but Mr. Abraham and the cheap labor crew in power were more interested in campaign contributions than the lessons of history.)

This creates a large contradictory problem: how to secure our country from the terrorists yet maintain civil rights, including civil rights for the many pro-American Arabs and Muslim in our country. (As everybody knows, more Arabs live in Southeastern Michigan than anywhere else outside the Middle East.) The vast majority of Arab Americans are patriotic. As for the terrorists hiding among them, they're already here.

Billion-dollar spying and antiterrorist budgets were not enough to prevent the World Trade Center and Pentagon massacres. One only wonders what can be done to prevent the next one?

Options are not clear.

Certainly we should hunt down and do our best to destroy the perpetrators of the World Trade Center massacre. And we should strive to cut America's dependence on foreign energy.

But what then?

Has God forsaken America?

Has this nation, which has been so richly blessed by God with freedoms and bountiful resources, been abandoned by him? Is God no longer on our side? The answer is a resounding no! It is the opposite that is true. We, as a nation, have banished God from our public life and to a great extent from our personal lives.

God does not "take sides." He is eternal and steadfast. His laws (rules) are well known and unchanging. The real question is are we on God's side?

Anyone taking an honest and objective view of the current landscape in this country cannot say that we are "on God's side." We, as a population, have first ignored, then tolerated and finally embraced many of the things God has told us in scripture are an abomination to him.

The world has succumbed to the original lie told to Eve by Satan. In the Garden of Eden, Satan convinced Eve that she could disobey God and become like him, "knowing good and evil." This might be the most misunderstood passage in scripture. It did not merely mean knowing the "difference" between good and evil, but have the right to substitute "man's" standards of good and evil for God's.

Medium Rare

And that is exactly what we have done. The Ten Commandments are banned from public consideration as being unworthy of an absolute standard for humanity. Instead, "political correctness" has become the standard. And in social mores, this often means there are no standards at all. Just do your thing.

As a consequence, Americans have cravenly maintained silence as their government bombs and starves innocent civilians in the name of imposing "democracy." Corporate profits take precedence over human rights and national security. Promises to "create jobs" take precedence over individual property rights.

The "popular" culture glorifies everything that God detests. Families disintegrate under the idea that man can set the standards.

The problem is not political nor is the solution. We are in a spiritual war in which we are unarmed and for the most part unaware.

The pundits tell us that the cause of the tragic (and totally evil) attack on the World Trade Center and Pentagon is that others are jealous of our wealth and power. That America is good and they are evil. That we only need stay the course and our "goodness" will prevail.

Are wealth and power the symbols of "goodness." I think not, at least in God's eyes. We are told to take great pride in our wealth, power and (diminishing) freedoms. Yet the Bible tells us that "pride goeth before destruction and a haughty manner before a fall." What is needed is humility, not pride.

God has made numerous promises to mankind. The following one is what we should be contemplating in these trying times.

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

II Chronicles 7:14

SOUND OFF EXTRA

Every resident should fly an American flag like the City of Wayne

Thank you to the City of Wayne for placing the US flags on the light poles downtown.

I encourage every resident to fly a US flag. America is still here and will be for a long time!

Praise for a Wayne gas station that didn't try to gouge prices

I'm not calling to complain about the low life gas station owners in the city of Wayne, I'm calling about the noble gas station on the corner of Venoy and Michigan Avenue.

Last night (Sept. 11), I drove around the whole city of Wayne, and to my knowledge, that was the only gas station that didn't raise their prices. [This cannot be confirmed. Also, several other callers named gas stations in Wayne that allegedly raised their prices, some to $3 per gallon. — Ed.]

So I just wanted to call and commend them. They will not only get my business, I will never go to another gas station in Wayne besides that one.

Disgusting that gas stations exploited tragedy with prices

Don't patronize any gas station that raised their prices on Sept. 11. It kind of shows you where their true priorities lie.

It's disgusting that they took such advantage under the cover of a major tragedy.

Fight communism with SLAPP suits and other nuisance suits

I am calling about "Anderson targets SLAPP suits" (Sept. 13, Westland Eagle).

This paper should know that, under the US Constitution, anybody has a right to go to court. We have the freedom of speech and the right to due process in court. Have you all gone crazy?

We do not live in a communist country. This paper and Glenn Anderson want to turn this country into a communist country. We're under enough communism all ready.

I've called the federal government. The FBI will be after this paper and Glenn Anderson.

Now I'm going to tell you, if the Gracins are called up to testify, Mildred Evans better be called, too.

All supporters equal, even those without swelled heads

Judy McKinney was right in that the recall was an accomplishment of an entire group; some contributing excessive amounts of time and effort, some regularly walking and gathering signatures, some only able to help on occasion around other obligations, and some who's "only" contribution was to sign their name on a petition or vote.

But there was not person better or more caring than any other in my opinion. That is how people get into trouble when they let power go to their head.

Caller keeps close watch on wandering mayor candidates

I read in the Sound Off that Cicirelli, the president of the Westland City Council, was in the neighborhoods knocking on doors

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Wave flags, sing songs, don't persecute

To the editor:

It was all so horrible. I still can't believe that the Pentagon was attacked. And that the Twin Towers are really gone, as well as all that was within and all that surrounded them. Two sudden attacks, a new gaping hole in the skyline, (much like a few missing teeth in a once-beautiful smile), and, a daily way of life was gone. Nothing remains now, save for the rubble, the memories, the dead and the dust.

But, especially the dust. The thick, choking, eye-burning dust that seems never to have an end. It is still spewing days after the attack. And well beyond the borders of ground zero. There is so much dust that one might think that they were the volcanic ashes of Vesuvius, that buried the great Pompeii. And, I can't help but wonder, as with Vesuvius, how many more might die solely from the toxic fumes. For it is no longer a place of beauty and peace. It is now a smoldering city dump and an open wound upon our land. Upon our America.

I keep replaying a never-ending mental video, that shows those air crafts, loaded with innocent men, women, and children, who, during their last moments of life, were being stabbed and slashed with knives and box cutters. At the same time, they were purposely and mercilessly crashed into the sides of the great towers, loaded with yet thousands more innocent victims. And, because of the large, nearly-full fuel tanks, the jets now became as huge, flying bombs.

Comes now the deafening sounds of the ramming nose cones, sheering and grinding steel girders, exploding walls of blinding glass and bone-breaking concrete, all projected and catapulted in every direction, into everyone, everything, everywhere, in one big final diesel-fueled explosion of napalm-like death. As horrible as that all was, the destruction caused by both jets, just minutes apart, was nothing compared to the final horror levied upon the temporary survivors.

When the temperature peaked, the buildings basically "melted", buckled and fell, along with both the living and the dead, ever downward and downward, into one unbelievable great heap of ash, papers, and the black, smokey fire of Hell, itself. And, in my mind, I keep hearing the screams of not only the newest victims, but, the final survivors, as well, running for their lives in the streets below. Like the people of Pompeii, being buried in soot. I see this all in my mind. Over and over.

I cannot believe that this is real. Someone wake me up.

Has anyone thought of this irony: how one group of Americans was used to kill another larger group of Americans when the jets rammed the towers? Americans killing Americans against their will. Not to mention the innocents of other countries, as well.

I also want to say that in light of the recent events, I wish people would not persecute all of Arabic ancestry, as was done with the Japanese in World War II and with the Vietnamese who came to America after that war. If you ever talked to the many people of various ancestries, you would realize that many fled their homelands for the very same reasons that America's earlier families did.

There was a desire to replace barbaric persecutions with freedom. Freedom from unspeakable daily horrors. Beatings, butcheries with machete knives, killings, rapes, acid thrown in the faces of women, concentration camps, confiscation of properties (if ownership was ever permitted), slavery, censorship, etc. Hopefully, some of these atrocities were left behind, never to be seen or felt again. But, some of the evil still manages to cross the ocean, much like the Pharaoh of Egypt crossed the Red Sea, to resume the persecutions once again. This is the evil that hates freedom. The evil that constantly tries to destroy and rob us all of Peace.

One important thought: don't let any evil triumph over good by pitting us one against the other. Instead, let us heal our wounds and stand together, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

That's all I wanted to say for today. Other than, buy a few patriotic songs, starting out with, "God Bless America," The Star-Spangled Banner," and, "America, the Beautiful." And buy a new flag, hang it at half-mast, and pray. Pray for the martyrs of freedom, their families and friends, and then, pray for our future in the United States of America.

Sincerely,
Angela Frances Todd

Why destroy America?

To the editor:

Why are people trying to destroy the U.S.A. ?
How can one nation - hate another this way?
Why do innocent people have to die?
It's such an awful act.
When all of us really want is to keep one country in tact!
We've helped all nations, large & small,
And welcomed them here one and all!
This is the Home of the Brave -
And the Land of the Free
And to try and destroy it - Angers me!
Let's pray for all leaders - Help them do their very best - And I believe with all my heart,
That god will do the rest.
So let's all stick together Wave the Red, White & Blue.
And keep the U.S.A. - still FREE today!
That was meant for me & you!

Romulus police officer retires

To the Editor:

I have been a member of the Romulus Police Department for twenty years. I have decided that it is time for new challenges and experiences and to that end I will be retiring in September of this year.

I can not leave without expressing my sincere gratitude to the entire community for making the past twenty years so memorable. There has been unbelievable support from the community for the Police Department and I want everyone to know how much it means to the men and women who work for you. I know it always meant something to me.

The degree of one's success in his or her career, as in life, is not left to the individual but left to others to measure. I sincerely hope that my service to the Romulus Police Department and to the community will be measured as a success and will be judged to have been a positive impact on Romulus.

Once again, thank you for the opportunity to contribute to this community and know that I will always look upon my tune here with gratitude and fondness for the City of Romulus and the Romulus Police Department.

Sincerely,
Bob Brown

Don't air Westland Dem's dirty laundry

To the editor:

This is to the person or persons who wrote the Sound Off without signing your name. How dare you!

I think you owe the Democratic Club and myself an apology. I never once, nor would I ever, air such dirty laundry to the public.

This is a club for the social equality of its members, an association with common objects; that is the definition, according to an on-line dictionary.

When I spoke of stomping feet and changing parties, I never once mentioned the Democratic Club, any one person, or any particular meeting; only you did.

If you had put any thought to what you wrote, you would have realized that I never once mentioned any name or particular instance. So take your "Tsk, tsk," and shove it.

But for your information, I don't think any Republican should join a Democratic Club any more than a Democrat should join a Republican Club.

Also, why should any club vote on members joining jointly ever? It should be an individual count. But that's something that should be discussed at a meeting and not in the paper.

Your letter contained many private club matters; and personally and as a club member, I hope in the future you keep club matters in the club and not made public.

Unlike you, Judy McKinney does write her name to the letters and Sound Offs I write, although I must admit that at times the editor of this paper has been known to omit names.

Westland mayor. I just wanted to say that she sounds like a delightful and intelligent candidate.

She has a lot of great ideas. Our city will really do well if she is our next mayor.

Glad council has limited the self-styled Westland 'guardians'

I'm glad that the Westland City Council is going to limit the people in the audience to five minutes.

I am personally getting tired of seeing and listening to the same people speaking over and over again as if they are the guardians of the whole city.

I'd rather they'd just get up and speak about topics that are of interest to them in particular.

Sound Off callers urged to use a little more concealing

I have been reading a lot of Sound Offs that I believe are from the same people who choose to sign their names to their letters to the editor, but prefer to remain hidden in Sound Off.

My advice to these people who prefer to be anonymous is to use different phrases than you do in your letters. It's crystal clear to me who the authors of the Sound Offs are that try to discredit some of the people running for council and for mayor.

If you truly believe Mr. LeBlanc has sold his support or that Mario Gracin has abused his legal defense fund or many of the other accusations printed in the Sound Off section, write a letter to the editor and sign your name. Show me your proof.

I clearly recognize the common phrases you use in both your letters and your Sound Offs. It is only a matter of time before others pick up on it.

Reverse psychology to whip up the Westland woman vote

A lot of people might accidentally vote for Cicirelli for mayor because this is a hockey town and Cicirelli is a famous hockey name.

I'll bet they wouldn't vote for her if they knew she was a woman. It should be a law that candidates have to put their first name on their signs so that you can tell if they are a man or a woman.

I think she's good for city council, but no city should have a woman mayor. [We apologize to the women of Westland for this insulting play — Ed.]

Romulus is on Tigers' homecoming menu Eagles seek first victory at Belleville's expense

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With both teams hungry for a morale-boosting victory - any kind will do, please - winless Romulus heads for neighboring Belleville Friday night to renew their football rivalry and meet for the first time on the gridiron as members of the Mega Conference-Red Division.

Romulus has won three consecutive Mega Conference (two in the Gold and one in the Blue) titles, while Belleville, with two Mega-Red crowns in their trophy case, has been a force to respect during the LaPointe dynasty.

Coach Wade Cook's Eagles, although they defeated but later had to surrender their opening-season victory on a forfeit to Wayne Memorial, are 0-4 on the season. They are coming off of a 28-13 loss to Dearborn Fordson.

Fordson is leading the Mega-

Red Division and is 4-0 on the year.

In the meantime, host Belleville and Coach Bob LaPointe are also having problems finding their way into the winning columns this season.

The Tigers were blanked by Allen Park, 28-0, in their latest outing.

Cook says he knows that there will be a battle this weekend at Belleville.

"We both want and need this victory," says Cook. "And if there's one coach you hate to face across the field, it's coach LaPointe. He's a legend," said Cook. "He has coached some of the finest ball players in the country, and this year's team also has a lot of talent. "Plus we face them on the night of their homecoming."

Against Fordson, Romulus struck first as senior running back Charles Searcy dove over the middle of the Tractor line from one-yard out for the opening touchdown.

Searcy's TD capped a 16-play, 71-yard drive, engineered by junior quarterback Jacob Mercado.

The drive also included a third-down, 27-yard run by tailback Chris Middlebrooks.

Kyle Wasson booted the extra point and, with 6:36 left in the opening quarter, the Eagles had a 7-0 lead.

But it took all of two plays for the visitors to answer. Sophomore receiver Ali Houssaiki caught a 58-yard TD pass, and the Tractors then made good on the point-after to tie the score at 7-all.

Fordson then scored three unanswered touchdowns. The Tractors had a 21-7 lead at half-time thanks to the efforts of Hafidh Alfakih, who finished with 107 yards rushing and also scored

Wayne wins big over Woodhaven

High school football fans locally, in the area, and across the state paused Friday night to pay a silent tribute to the more than 5,000 men, women and children who lost their lives on Tuesday, Sept. 11, during the terrorists' cowardly attacks on the World Trade Center in New York and the Pentagon in Washington D. C.

At Wayne Memorial, visiting players from Woodhaven and members of the local team, along with coaching staffs and the crowds bowed their heads in a moment of silence for the fallen.

"We observed the tragedy, as did most of the nation, by remembering those who died in New York and Washington," said Wayne coach Floyd Carter. "Players and coaches met at midfield, and the captains of both teams lit a huge memorial candle in remembrance of those who lost their lives."

Carter stressed that the challenge continues for the living, to be prepared and ready to defend the nation and our liberties against those who would attempt to take them away.

Wayne was ready for the challenge that a highly-respected Woodhaven ball club had to offer.

With running back Darian Mitchell back in the lineup, Wayne turned back Woodhaven, 30-14, for its third win in four starts.

Mitchell scored two touchdowns, rushed for 187 yards on 14 attempts.

"I felt that our entire team played an outstanding game against an excellent Woodhaven team," said Carter. "We jumped out in front early and managed to stay there the whole game."

Carter lauded the efforts on defense by Chris Cox, Mo Jackson, Michael Rashad and Chris Allen. Rashad and Allen each had interceptions.

Mitchell scored on the first play from scrimmage after the opening kickoff. He bolted through the Woodhaven line and raced unscathed 63 yards into the end zone.

When Jonathan Edwards kicked the extra point to make it a 7-0 ball game, only 13 seconds had elapsed.

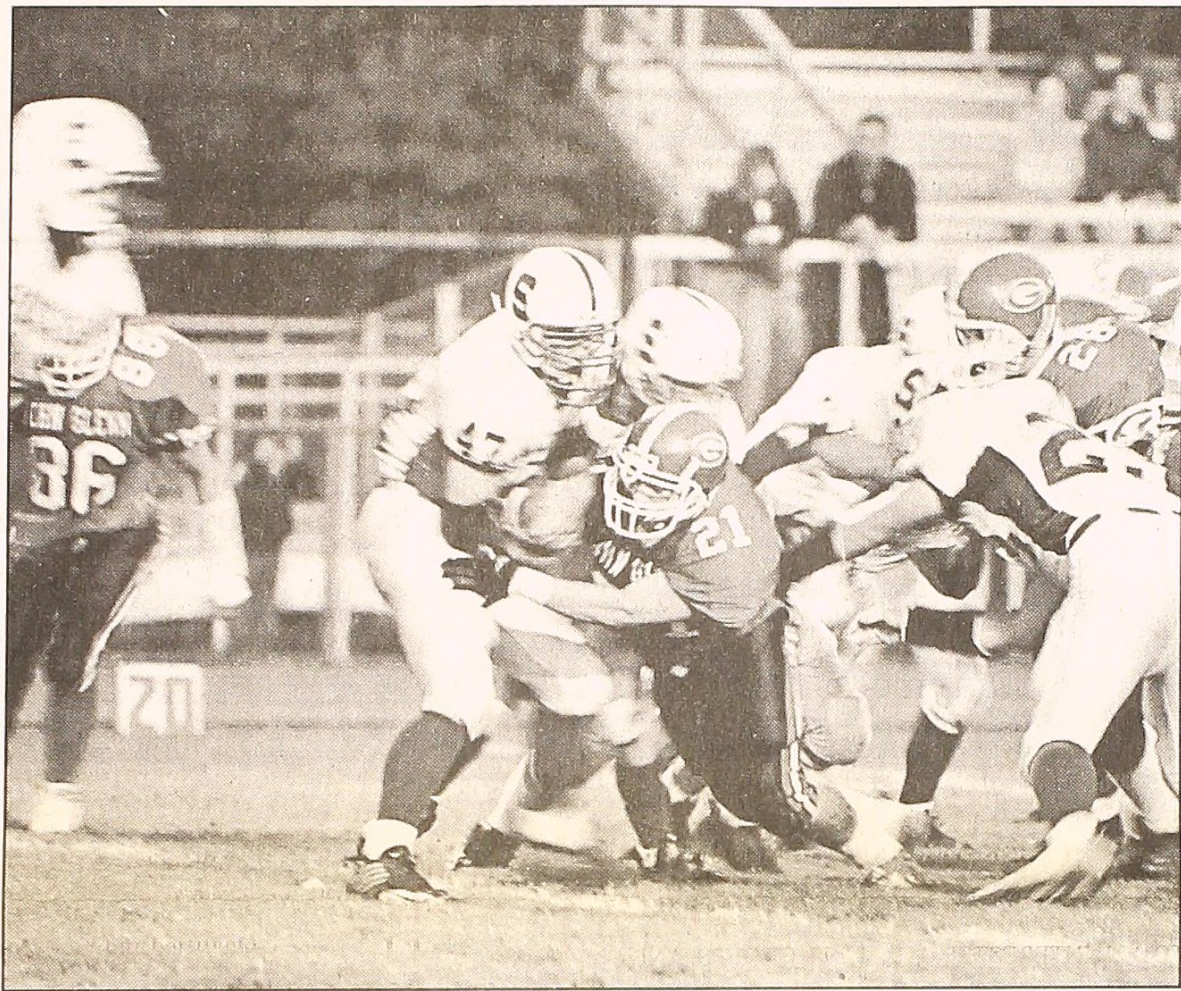

Wayne struck again in the first period and again it was Mitchell who got the job done. This time he raced 85 yards on the second play after a Woodhaven punt for the score. Edwards kick failed to go over the upright, however, Wayne enjoyed a 13-0 lead.

Early in the second quarter, Mitchell set up David Cicotte's one-yard QB sneak when he came through with a 28-yard run on a third and 14 situation.

Cicotte's TD capped a 42-yard, eight play drive and Edwards's kick for the PAT was on target, lifting Wayne into a 20-0 lead.

Cicotte and Mitchell teamed up for the next one. Cicotte

Glenn honors coach Gordon

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Chuck Gordon doesn't like surprises, especially before a crucial football game.

He got one Friday night, he readily admits.

When the veteran John Glenn football coach was invited to move to center field, he became suspicious, and realized that "something was up."

"I really didn't know what they were up to," he would

"It was a nice tribute, I am fortunate, very fortunate, to have the opportunity to coach such great young men and be a part of the Wayne-Westland schools. It has been a great experience."

Chuck Gordon

later say.

His father and mother, Gaylend and Vera, were also in the crowd of thousands, but that wasn't anything out of the ordinary because, after all, his parents have made the annual trip from Crystal Falls to attend the traditional Parents Night game. Something special did happen.

Joining the Gordons at midfield were senior linebacker

... Rockets blast Salem, 27-7

By TOM MOORADIAN

Westland John Glenn crushed visiting Plymouth-Salem, 27-7, to remain undefeated in the Lakes Division of the Western Lakes Conference.

Before a Parents' Night crowd estimated in the thousands, the Rockets exploded to a 20-0 halftime lead, after which the outcome of the game was never in doubt.

The loss left first-year Salem coach Bob Cummings winless in four starts, and in search of his first victory.

Salem managed to hold until the last three minutes of the first quarter when Glenn's junior quarterback Brian Ceckiewicz put together a 11-play, 51-yard drive that culminated with sophomore wingback De'Anthony Granberry's one-yard touchdown run.

Kicker Andrew Peiffer kicked his first of three successful point-after.

Robichaud gives coach an early Christmas gift

Some people just want their two front teeth for Christmas. But, all Robichaud coach Mark Medlock wanted and received as a gift was a victory over natural rival, Inkster.

Medlock's Bulldogs put some teeth into the defense and got all the offense they needed from senior quarterback Joe Claybron as Robichaud hung on to beat the Vikings, 24-16, in a Mega-Gold game Friday afternoon at the Dearborn Heights high school's field.

The victory, before nearly a 1,000 fans, snapped Robichaud's three-game losing streak, and it was their first in nearly 12 outings for Medlock.

Inkster's record dipped to 1-3 on the year.

"I have never seen such an intense, hard-fought and well-played game as this one," said Medlock. "Am I happy that we came out the winner? You bet I am. I am elated, especially for our seniors who have waited and endured so long time for this day. And it's been a very frustrating 12 weeks of waiting."

Medlock commended the efforts of seniors Marcus Johnson, Claybron, Ken Walker, Ray Gray, Bradford Brown and Lorenzo Smith.

"These seniors have worked so hard, waited so long for this victory. It was long overdue them," the Robichaud coach added.

Robichaud hopes to make it two in a row on Friday when they clash with Taylor Kennedy at Kennedy.

In the meantime, the Vikings will attempt to recoup Friday afternoon when Highland Park pays the Vikings a visit. However, the Parkers are 4-0 and looking to secure their first-ever divisional football title.

It will be rough for first-year coach Troy Kyles and his ball club.

It was also a hard loss for the Vikings to digest. They quickly dug themselves in a 12-0 hole as a spirited Robichaud took advantage of all of their visitors' mistakes.

Senior quarterback Joe Claybron got the Bulldogs on the board when he teamed up with senior split end Marcus Johnson on a beautifully executed short pass that turned into a 43-yard scoring play.

Johnson finished the afternoon with three receptions for a total of 111 yards and a touchdown.

Claybron made it a 12-0 game on a quarterback sneak into the Viking end zone after he faked a pass to Johnson.

Claybron turned in a sterling effort as he also scored two other touchdowns, rushed for 164 yards, and passed for 150 more in scoring three of the four Bulldog touchdowns.

A costly fumble deep in Robichaud territory set up the first of two Inkster scores.

Ken Walker, Ray Gray and Johnson stood out on defense. Walker, a defensive end, dubbed the soul of the Robichaud defense, picked up 10 solo tackles and had one sack. Gray counted six unassisted tackles from his linebacker's slot.

"We played 48 minutes of heads-up ball, and I knew we could do it," said Medlock. "This victory was a confidence builder. It told us we can play against another in the conference."

Canton misses opportunity to upset Harrison

Farmington Hills Harrison proved it is the team to beat in the Western Lakes Conference and the area, if not the state, this year by rallying to a 45-34 victory over previously undefeated Plymouth-Canton before a sellout crowd at Canton Friday night.

Ranked No. 1 in the state since Day 1 of the season, Harrison fell behind 6-0 as Canton marched down field with its first possession and didn't stop until the Chiefs put six points on the board.

Coach Tim Baechler's Chiefs came right back and again put together a drive that ended short because of an interception. If that sustained drive had been polished off with the hosts' second TD, the outcome of the game may have been different.

Led by senior quarterback Drew Stanton, Harrison regrouped and recovered their poise. The Hawks scored the next 28 points to go up by 21 at half-time, 35-14.

Canton made one last brave effort in the second half to come back when Dave Korbus scored on a seven-yarder that cut Harrison's lead, 42-21, but the Chiefs couldn't match the overall strength of the three-time defending state champs.

Stanton, as he has throughout his career, proved to be his opponent's nemesis.

The senior quarterback managed to connect with his receivers on six of 13 attempts for a total of 156 yards. Canton's defense just couldn't stop him after the initial quarter.

The loss left Canton with a 1-1 Western Division record. The Chiefs are 3-1 on the season. They blew away their first three opponents - Ypsilanti, North Farmington and Northville - before engaging Harrison.

On Friday, the Chiefs should have no problem taking their wrath out of a listless Livonia Franklin, their next Western Division opponent. Franklin will host the Chiefs at 7:30 p.m.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Wayne snaps 4-game losing streak beating Garden City

Price is on target for Zebras

With Renita Price tossing in 10 points and Ashley Brittany scoring eight, Wayne Memorial held on to a narrow 39-37 victory over Garden City to snap a four-game losing streak.

The game was a Mega Conference crossover.

Up by five with less than a minute to go, Garden City came back on the strength of Alesha Ackerman's two baskets to close the gap.

"They also got the last shot of the game, and if it had fallen, we would have been forced into an OT," said Wayne Coach Wayne Woodward.

The ball bounced off the rim and that secured for Wayne and Coach Woodward their first victory of the 2001 campaign.

Wayne also received 10 rebounds each from Amber Henn and Shannan Jones, while Rwas White added seven points for the winners.

Ackerman finished with a game-high 16 points.

Wayne was scheduled to host natural rival, Westland John Glenn, Tuesday night. The Zebras will open the Mega Conference, Blue Division, phase of the season tonight at home against Willow Run.

Vikings continue to roll

Junior forward Laelah Qawee scored a season high 24 points as undefeated Inkster crushed Saginaw Buena Vista, 79-13, on Thursday.

It was the Vikings' 25 consecutive victory since Dave Mann took over as head coach at Inkster High.

"Everyone played," said Mann after the game. "This team is coming together quite well. I am very pleased with our performance."

He also noted that he doesn't want his team members to become too complacent.

"We're playing in the Mega-Red this year and the competition in that division is fierce," Mann added.

After the first period, the Vikings had an 18-3 lead and the outcome of the game was never in doubt. Inkster led by as much 43-6 at halftime.

Three other players joined Qawee in double figures. Brittany Evans scored 16 and Keisha Young, a freshman, tossed in 11, while Carena Easley finished with 10 points.

Mann will take his Vikings to Redford Thurston on Thursday for a crossover Mega Conference game.

"I coached there (at Thurston) back in 1988 and this will be my first trip back to the school," said Mann. "They have an excellent program over there, and we're looking forward to the game."

Injured star to return

Mary Riley, who led Dearborn Heights Robichaud in scoring and rebounding a year ago and earned All-Conference recognition for her efforts, is scheduled to return to Coach Warren Woods' lineup next week.

"She (Riley) has been sidelined since the beginning of the season with a severe ankle injury," said

Woods after the Bulldogs dropped their third straight, 68-28, to Milford on Thursday. "She would give our team a big boost on both ends of the court."

Milford jumped out to a 30-12 lead and never looked back until it wrapped up its fifth straight victory.

Ladonna Nealy has been carrying the Bulldogs on the boards. She grabbed 15 rebounds and also managed to score 13 points.

Robichaud was back on the pine Tuesday night, taking on Taylor Kennedy in a Mega Conference crossover game. They'll begin the Mega-Gold competition tonight (Thursday) at home to Highland Park, a team that finished second to Inkster High a year ago in the race for the Gold Division championship.

Plymouth-Salem's Kyle Sitarski (5) hits a wall of John Glenn defenders in his attempt for yardage on this try. The Rocks found the Rocket defense impregnable as they fell, 27-7, in their Western Lakes, Lake Division battle. Glenn heads for North Farmington on Friday, while coach Bob Cummings and Salem will host Farmington on the same night in hopes of snapping their four-game losing streak. Photo by Carl Brown

Craig Lewis, senior tackle Kyle Hayes, the injured and on crutches Tony Quint and Andrew Peiffer. The four are co-captains of the 2001 Rocket Varsity team.

The players were there to represent their team and their teammates and the teams and players Gordon had coached during the past 25 years.

Lewis, Hayes, Quint and Peiffer exemplified and personified the outstanding young men who have traditionally earned their way to becoming Rockets.

"We just wanted to thank you for everything you have done," said one of the players in presenting a crystal sphere on behalf of the team and fans to coach Gordon. "We will never forget you."

There was also a congratulatory letter from Lloyd Carr, the University of Michigan's head coach. Gordon served on Carr's staff when Carr was the head coach at Glenn during the 1973, 1974, and 1975 seasons.

And the team went out and beat arch-rival, Plymouth-Salem, 27-7, as icing on the ceremonial cake.

"It was a nice tribute," said Gordon later. "I am fortunate, very fortunate, to have the opportunity to coach such great young men and be a part of the Wayne-Westland schools. It has been a great experience."

Rockets

Two touchdowns by Glenn in the second quarter may have convinced the Rocks they were no match for this year's Glenn team.

With 1:18 left until the half, Anthony Davis completed a 46-yard, four-play series with touchdown run.

Twelve seconds later, and in a turnover labeled crucial for Salem, the Westlanders got the ball back as Glenn's senior defensive back Maurice Warren picked off a Rock pass.

On the subsequent play from scrimmage, Ceckiewicz and Granberry teamed up on a 46-yard TD pass-run play.

Glenn scored what proved to be its final touchdown with 2:42 left in the third quarter. Ceckiewicz again had the Rockets on the move and wound up with what may have been one of his best series with a pinpoint TD pass to Peiffer, who grabbed the aerial in the right corner of the Rocks' end zone.

Peiffer's score covered seven yards of a 94-yard drive that took all of 14 plays which ate up most of the third period.

Salem averted the shutout in the fourth as the Rocks marched 65-yards with back-up quarterback Ryan Bradley connecting with Kyle Sitarski on a 10-yard TD pass. Drew Ringley kicked the extra point.

Granberry had another excellent game as the 5-11, 162-pound running back picked up 117 yards on 22 rushes and one TD.

Peiffer was on the receiving end of seven of Ceckiewicz's passes for an additional 127 yards. The junior Glenn QB made eight of 12 for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

In a rerun of what has been a success story for outsider linebacker Nick Seymour, the senior also led the Rockets on defense. He teamed up with Jordan Merandi to shut out the Rocks for three periods.

One of the highlights of this game was the appearance of Kyle Hayes. Out for the first three games, Hayes made a cameo, one-play appearance on the field to the applause of his fans and crowd. Hayes had off-season knee surgery and is recuperating.

It's on to North Farmington Friday night. North can be tough, says coach Gordon.

Salem awaits a visit from Farmington Friday in game No. 5.

one of the four Tractor touchdowns on a 48-yard, around end, sprint.

Early in the fourth quarter, Romulus cut the Fordson lead when Searcy scored his second TD. The senior running back, who also was called upon at times to play quarterback, amassed 101 yards on 28 rushes.

Cook was pleased with Mercado's inaugural QB efforts.

"He has no experience at the position, but he managed to direct the offense with authority," said Cook of the 5-10, 160-pound junior. "He's going to be a good one."

Mercado connected on two of his six passes for 36 yards.

Romulus sophomore safety, Kyle Wasson, also stood out. He had a sack of the QB and also counted eight tackles. Teammate Dave Kenney, an outside linebacker, bagged 10 tackles, caused one fumble and recovered another, while junior inside linebacker Brandon Dawson finished with one sack and nine tackles.

Wayne

flipped a two-yard TD pass to Mitchell, after Cox had blocked a Woodhaven punt and the Zebras recovered on the Woodhaven five.

Midway in the third period, Woodhaven closed the gap to 27-6 as Jermaine Jones culminated a 51-yard, six-play drive with a 26-yard TD run. A key play in that series was an 18-yard pass completion that went from Bryon Howard to Dan Rutchik on a fourth and two situation.

However, Wayne answered with Henry Love's 33-yard field goal which turned the game into a 30-6 rout. Love's kick was set up by Mitchell's 49-yard kickoff return.

Before the quarter ended, Woodhaven put its final score on the board as Chris Tucker broke through the Wayne line for a 58-yard dash up the middle. Howard again had come through on a fourth and two with an 18-yard pass completion which kept the drive alive.

Wayne heads for Garden City Friday night for a crossover Mega Conference game.

Wayne managed to amass 238 yards on the ground and held Woodhaven to 81 yards.

McLeod also had an excellent day on offense. His 14 rushing attempts accounted for 63 yards, a 4.5 yard per try. On defense, Maurice Jackson was in the limelight as he recorded five initial hits, three assists and also recovered a Woodhaven fumble.

Rashad intercepted one pass and also contributed two solos and three assists, while Cox had an incredible six solos and one assist. He also blocked one punt and caused a fumble.

Kurtis Allen also had an interception and Antoine Allen deflected one of 27 passes attempted by Howard.

3. Card of Thanks

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Holy Spirit, you who make me see everything and who show me the way to reach my ideal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me. You who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desire may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones. Persons must pray the prayer 3 consecutive days without asking your wish. After the third day the wish will be granted no matter how difficult it may be. Then you must promise to publish this prayer as soon as the favor is granted. W.B.
